THE TALL SHIP RACES

The Tall Ships Races are held every year in European Waters. The intent of the race is making new friends from all over the world and learn to sailing. The race consist of three races over several hundred miles and a Cruise in company between the legs. At least one half of the crew of each ship has to consist of young people.

This trip will not be a race, but a Cruise in Company. It will not be about coming 1st but all about having a good time, maybe meet up with other ships to hang out together and have a good time. Maybe a friendly football match between the ships in one of the harbours. As you will not be racing, if wind and weather permit, there will be time to make some stop overs. Cruise in Company harbours will welcome the Tall Ships along their way!

THE MAYBE

Maybe, a 1920's Dutch sailing ketch (Class C), launched in 1933, was designed for round the world cruising and took part in the first Tall Ships Race in 1956. She was built by De Vries Lentsch in Amsterdam for Jan Jacob van Rietschoten.

Maybe underwent a complete refit with a new rig after World War II. She sailed mainly around the Mediterranean and in the 70's regularly crossed the Atlantic between the West Indies and the Mediterranean. In the 80's she also sailed through the Panama Canal and up the east coast of the USA to Canada.

SAILING THE MAYBE

Maybe was sold to the present owners in 1989 and underwent another complete restoration returning to sailing in 2007 around Scotland and then onto Spain in 2008. She returned to the Tall Ships Race in the Baltic's in 2009 which she successfully completed.

In 2010 she sailed in all the Tall Ships Races and Regatta, becoming 2nd in the North Sea Tall Ships Regatta.

In 2011 the old gaff-sail was reinstalled on the mainsail. She sailed around Scotland and again competed in the Tall Ships Races 2011.

THE CREW

The Maybe is run by 3 professional crew members. Maybe has a full schedule of sailing in Tall Ships events and the crew loves to sail the races and join into the bustle of the parties in the cities.

The crew are trained yacht masters with the necessary STCW courses and complying with the international rules. On board you will be welcomed and made part of a small crew, sailing a vessel with history.

THE ACCOMODATION

Maybe has a capacity of 14 people with extensive accommodation below deck including a chart room, engine room (with Volvo Penta 265hp engine & 32Kva generator), 5 fully-fitted cabins, 2 heads, 2 showers and a large lounge/galley area fitted with all modern conveniences.

For the comfort of the crew, central heating has been installed to make even winter sailing a pleasure.

ADVENTURE for EVERYBODY

Programme outline

> Your Tall Ships Adventure starts at 18.00 hours on board the Maybe in the harbour of Cadiz. When you arrive you will get to know the ship, mentors, crew and the other trainees. After a warm welcome, the Captain's introduction and safety briefing, you will have time to spend a pleasant evening on board or in port. Should your travel schedule cause you to arrive before 18.00 hours, you are welcome to store your bags aboard and have a look around the town.

> The next morning the ship will leave the harbour and set sail in the parade of sail. After breakfast, you will be introduced to how everything works on the deck of the ship. Together with the crew, you will get the ship ready to leave the harbour and start the cruise of the Tall Ships Race 2012.

> On board you will be divided into three watches. This means that you will also be on watch during the night. You will learn to set the sails, to steer the vessel, you will help the cook with the meals and clean the ship inside and out. You do this during your watch, but also when it is necessary outside of your watch.

On board you have to work together and take care of the ship. You will become part of the crew like a real trainee. When on watch there will be professional crew to help and guide you and a watch officer to take care of the navigation while you manage the sails.

> Life at sea can be hectic at times when the wind gets stronger or calms down, but there is always plenty of time to relax and read a book or sing together while the sun is setting. Life on a Tall Ship is great! Our goal is to organize group activities at least once a day – varying from playing games to singing – so everybody gets to know each other really well and feels part of one big team.

There is nothing too crazy for us; you are welcome to share your ideas!

> In the harbour there will be lots of activities organised by the host port especially for the visiting young trainees. Open-air free concerts, city tours and parties will all be there for you! Of course you must challenge the trainees from other ships during sports competitions, and you must walk with the Crew Parade through the whole city where thousands of spectators will cheer you, because you are from a ship!

Your ship could receive an award during the prize-giving ceremony and last but not least you can join the crazy crew party for everybody who took part in the race of The Tall Ships Races 2012.

The port of A Coruna is looking forward to receiving the Tall Ships and will make sure that you have a great time during your stay!

> Your voyage will end at 10.00 in the morning of the third day in harbour. You will look back at a life changing-experience!

Get ready to set sail and steer the ship!
